Another revolution in interior decoration has taken place.

Grupporagaini has decorated the element of heat and made the radiator a central feature. With its new coloured casing options, Tuttotondo can be used to bring an identity to the modern household by constructing a unique personality. Choose from a selection of decorations and think in a new way; the radiator breathes life into the home.

Customise heat exactly as you wish.

Customising Heat.

Grupporagaini offers innovation in terms of attitude and quality and in terms of image and customisation: radiators today represent a real feature of a given environment and can be chosen especially to fit in with specific colour schemes and decorative themes.

With Tuttotondo form and function find new balance and new strength.
